State Fair Notes.

The balloon ascension was a success yesterday.

The pie eaters will perform this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The dogs are continuing to draw many sight-seers.

The races last night were very interesting and exciting.

The Ritchie school pupils have a display that is well worth looking at.

Double balloon ascension and parachute drop this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The group picture of the baby show by 61th is a fine one, and copies can be had early next week.

The searchlights worked splendidly last night. They illuminate the track so that it is as light as day.

To see the exhibits and the dog show you must attend the fair during the day. They're not open evenings.

A colored man was arrested on the grounds last night, accused of stealing the wearing apparel of a bar-tender.

One man accused another of not returning his change, and an argument ensued, but it was settled peacefully.

Two sheep became a little jealous of each other, and were going to settle matters, when they were forcibly separated.

A little excitement was caused by the losing of a little dog. A report was out that the dog had been stolen, but it was untrue.

The great two-headed woman is quite a drawing card at the Fair. This tent also displays a clown acrobat and a ventriloquist.

There is talk of having Battery A, U. S. R. K. of P., give the drill on the grounds to-morrow night with their big runs, same as given at Detroit two weeks ago, when the Wheeling boys took the prizes. It would be a strong attraction.

The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling brought in an excursion of about 500 people from points along that line. Accompanying the special was General Passenger Agent M. G. Carrel, of Cleveland, accompanied by his daughter and a friend.

The wind storm Tuesday night wrought considerable havoc on the grounds. A number of tents along the Midway and some of the temporary wooden structures were blown down, but the damage was soon repaired Wednesday morning.

In the baby contest on Tuesday, the second prize was awarded to Frank E. R. Kreuer, of Wheeling, only after the judges had come to the conclusion to toss up a copper and break the tie for second honors between young Kreuer and Leonora Myers, of Mountville, and Paul J. Beck, of Wheeling.

Col. Charley Schmidt raised a contribution from the seedmen sufficiently large to give an extra premium to the winners in his department. The fair association gave $25 as first prize in most cases, and the special prizes were offered in addition, as follows: Fruits and vegetables, each $25; potatoes, grain, collection of plants and display of flowers, each $10.

TO-NIGHT'S BATTLE.

Hamilton and Dime Arrived Yesterday, and McClelland and His Party are Due This Morning—Indications Point to a Fast Bout.

There is remarkable interest in the twenty-round fight scheduled for tonight before the Metropolitan Club, between Jack Hamilton, of Troy, N. Y., and Jack McClelland, of Pittsburgh. The have fought before, but the title of superiority has not been decided—consequently to-night's contest is given added interest. Both men will try from start to finish for the coveted knock out, knowing that it will give the victor a great boost up Flitana's ladder of fame.

Hamilton arrived in the city yesterday, accompanied by his manager, Jimmie Dime, who used to be some shucks with the mites himself. Hamilton is on edge for to-night's encounter, and is confident he will win decisively. McClelland and his party, including many rosters, will arrive from Pittsburgh at noon.

The main event will be put on about 9:30 being preceded by the preliminary between Gilhouse, of Bridgeport, and Baker of the South Side.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Wheeling 6, Mansfield 1.

Marion 6, Toledo 1.

Anderson 5, New Castle 1.

The Wheelings won the last championship game of the season on the home grounds from Mansfield yesterday afternoon. Poole pitched for the Stogies, and he was invincible. Five of Wheeling's runs came in the third inning, when two-baggers by Ritter and Boyd, some ragged work by the Mansfield fielders and a pair of singles netted the bunch of five runs. Mansfield scored one run in the first inning, when McVey scored on a bad throw from Ritter to Pardee, who was playing second.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 12.—The finish of to-day's game between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh was as exciting as the veriest enthusiast could desire. Up to the eighth inning Waddell had been almost invincible, and the visitors had steadily increased their lead. In the local team's half of the eighth, eleven men batted. They made seven hits, three of which were doubles, netting seven runs, which tied the score. In the ninth, however, Pittsburgh made another run, and Philadelphia failed to tally. Score:

Daily the Hero.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 12.—Daily won today's game by smashing out a double in the seventh, with the bases full. The game had been a see-saw affair up to that time, and was long drawn out because of the kicking of the visitors. The Cincinnati took the lead in the seventh, and it was up to Daily to win in the Brooklyn's half, when the bases were full, two out and darkness coming fast. He was equal to the occasion. It was the fourth consecutive game in which McClelland took part. Score:

Cincinnati 2 0 0 0 0 0 2-4 3 1

Brooklyn 0 2 0 1 0 0 2-10 4

Batteries, Hahn and Feltz; McClelland and Farrell. Earned runs, Brooklyn 1. Time, 2:30. Umpire, Snyder. Attendance, 800.

They Broke Even.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The New Yorks and Chicago broke even this afternoon. The visitors won the first game without much trouble. The second was closely contested, the New Yorks winning because of a wild throw by McCormick. He gathered up Hickman's grounder and then threw behind the grand stand, Hickman scoring on the error. Mercer collided with King at the plate in the seventh inning of the first game and was knocked out. He recovered in a few minutes, but was too badly shaken up to continue. R H E

Chicago 0 0 0 3 3 1 0 0-13 1

New York 1 0 0 0 0 1 0 0-10 2

In a Gale of Wind.

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—A gale of wind today prevented either team from playing good ball. The errors were excusable, it being next to impossible to judge a ball after it went into the air. Nichols kept the hits well scattered, while Powell was batted hard throughout the game. The game was called at the end of the sixth inning on account of the wind. Attendance, 700. Score:

Boston 1 4 2 0 0 2-15 15 2

St. Louis 0 0 0 1 0 0-3 7 4

Batteries, Nichols and Clarke; Howell and Robinson. Earned runs, Boston 11; St. Louis 1. Home runs, Long. Time, 1:45. Umpire, Hurst.
